
Honours Presentations – 2010-2011

Department of Sociology and Anthropology
Faculty and Students are invited to attend the presentation of Honours Projects for 2010-2011

Friday April 8, 2011 – H-1120

SESSION 1: 9:30 to 10:45 AM

- Durre Mohar: Religious Complexities: An Islamic approach to understanding the negotiation of marriage among young men
- Vanessa Petrillo: How does child abuse affect the victim's well-being?
- Ivan Trachter: Privacy and the Advent of Targeted Internet Advertising
- Samantha Downey: When Knowing is Not Enough: Exploring the gap between environmental attitudes and action

Discussant: Daniel Dagenais

SESSION 2: 11:00 AM to 12:15 PM

- Bianca Kara: Stopped for a Minority Infraction: The interpretation of police stops by Concordia University students
- Michael Wade: An Overrepresented Minority: The overrepresentation of Aboriginal People in the Canadian correctional system
- Katrina Heyde: In Their Own Words: A story of deviance

Discussant: Amy Swiffin

* A Pot-Luck Lunch will be served in H-1120 *******

SESSION 3: 1:30 to 2:45 PM

- Kalev Tamm: Podworld: Information and Communication Technologies and the Privatization of Public Space
- Walter Goettlich: When This Baby Hits 88 Miles per Hour: Automobile inscription and identity communication in America
- Eric Talbot: Kotex's "U" Advertising Campaign: The rhetoric of satire

Discussant: Bev Best

SESSION 4: 3:00 to 4:15 PM

- Crystal Smeltzer: Post-traumatic stress disorder and substance abuse
- Jonathan Reinglas: Income inequalities and Community: Challenging the assumptions of poverty's effects on crime
- Jessica Légère: Managing Identities: The impact of role strain on female athletes

Discussant: Meir Amor